The fact that the ladder is up is awesome and the signatures rock (like how u used mine, kick my theme song ) but if it was EA who fixed the ladder which I am led to believe it was theres just too many cheaters out there for it be something to enjoy. Im not trying to belittle any of what you have accomplished, it sure as hell rocks but when people have 3,000 in 30 games or so it kind of defeats the purpose. Especially with servers like afterfive and such which do not have any moderators to my knowledge to stop cheaters.

Oh well, great work regardless. RENEGADE lives ON!!!
