idk why you'd try to shit on someone's efforts to get something going in the first place i thought maybe that was why; if not then i haven't the slightest idea and you don't even have a dick so don't say silly things like that but i honestly didn't appreciate having to download a separate map pack just to join one of these servers, considering 4.0 has an auto map downloader that someone took numerous hours to create in an attempt to make it easier for players to join servers without having to download separate map packs

i audibly cursed Spoony's name several times; ask Hitman

i saw loki ingame as well
