Incorrect, with our current socialist leader, Obama, it will soon be considered the United Socialist States of America.

I can't believe these communist/socialist/Marxist bastards haven't learned that free people will absolutely not tolerate it and that it ALWAYS leads to us kicking the shit out of them.

Obama socialist... LOL

It shows how clouded your judgment is. Look at countries like the Scandinavian countries* and to a lesser extend to the Netherlands*. In your opinion that would be worse than socialism (if you call Obama a communist/marxist). Yet they have a higher living standard than the US. They show you're wrong and socialism doesn't necessarily means that the economy will crash.

Not to mention that there is a huge difference between socialism, marxists and communism.

And look at the USA, the "liberal" government wanted to introduce things like pipa and sopa, let the current crisis happen by not exerting enough control over banks. Then they safe the bank from bankruptcy. Basically what they have been doing is reverse socialism: Privatise the profits, socialise the losses.

*) Based on GPD per inhabitant: Norway is rated 6th country in the world, Denmark is rated 10th, The Netherlands is rated 16th and Sweden is rated 18th. The USA is rated 20th.
