in some aspects yes, 3.4.4 has a direct advantage over 4.0

just because everyone can use building bars doesn't make it fair because, truly, not everyone knows how to find or add a skin to their game and likely never will so you have that advantage over all of those players as well as the players that choose to play without advantage HUDs with building bars

^ that's how RenForums views building bars and always has, that's not my personal opinion
