f100d3dWell, my friend ... if you want to play in the big boy world on big boy turf -- I'll play your game. It's been years, but I'm ready to 'get back to it'. Then the community can blame your ass for the stupid comments you said to f100d3d that triggered it. You truly would have been better off to get to know me and "tame me" (as some have put it in the past) and use me to your advantage --- not demise.

Good day to you.

This is the funniest part.

WOE TO THOSE WHO OPPOSE THE MIGHT OF FLOODED!
