This is the guy who hosts my server. Don't worry, I'm on a separate router or something so attacks on my box don't affect other clients. Their platinum plan is $24.95 for 20 gigs of transfer and 500 MB of storage, but you might be able to negotiate that up to a gig. Just tell them I referred you.

I can assure you not one outage was EVER caused by my provider. Their support is top-notch and their bandwidth is well-connected and worth the price tag.

Thanks, i'll look into them as an option. How shall I refer you, by Real name or Nick?
