Quote:Well clearly you have no life

A spurious claim - there is no way to objectively call out whether or not he has a "life" because he posted on forums.

Quote:Its simple if you can only win a game camping tanks and adv soldiers when your fighting free inf you should go try pacman or something.

Whose standards are we judging this by? Yours? Seeing how you have difficulty understanding the point of the game (Attack/defend/win at all costs) and are limiting yourself by playing by a set of rules that Starbuzz obviously does not follow, you are simply setting yourself up to be a whiny scrub and should learn how to play.

/Also, you were born in 1984 but you graduated from high school in 2010?

//Somehow it isn't that unbelievable considering how many elementary punctuation errors are in every one of your posts.
