That's the funny thing about trolling. One man's troll is another man's seriousness. Of course that all happened. I'm not going to deny it. What difference would it make, anyhow? That was 2009. It's 2012. Did you have a point to make or do you just enjoy being trolled? I mean, if you do - don't let me stop you. I can reply to this thread until my fingers fall off.
