well......
IF YOU SAY REN IS DEAD ONE MORE TIME ILL HUNT YOU DOWN!

also there is stuff being done about cheaters and thay are getting banned but theres always another n00b that will take hes place.
the Ren Gaurd project is done something and so is the 2 other anti cheat teams, one of which is mine.

Off Topic: What im propossing is that teams all come together under one roof to work on the anti cheat. this would effectivly incress out put and get it done faster and there would be less compition between teams as there is right now.
