Was good reading some posts here. Happy to see some still playing Ren.

Bullshit aside XpZ was a fun ass place to play in the golden years. It was one of those servers that tons of good players stood in line to play at. We had tons of new things in our servers and were always willing to format them to our players play style. That in hole was what made XpZ a top contender back in the day.

Our staff at one point was dam good. Our servers ran very well unless they were being attacked. It did however become so huge that it needed a shit ton of support. That's when things got out of hand. To many hands in the cookie jar so to speak. I should know because I created XphaZe along with a small group of friends.

I started XpHaZe the day I named it in a meeting with yonega ,grngoblyn & Koolaid after a meeting with Koolaid to set ownership. Not to all sure if others were there long time ago.

Koolaid financed the servers while I built the community. Koolaid bailed later on like 4 months after rolling. Yonegga took the finances on his shoulders and paid out the ass! Yon & Goblin were also made owners at that point. We grew from that.

There was a lot of good people that helped XpZ along the way. Like I said it was a good place to be in the early years. Most mentioned besides me and yon should me Mark and matty. I worked the shit out of matty back then on ideas. Sry matty! Mark did a lot of stuff for several gaming communities especially his early work at XpZ.

I wish XpZ was still here like a few others. I also left XpZ because of personal life changes and yes me and yon just were not getting along well as some know. It was time to move on. If I knew things for whatever reason were going to go the way they did i would have stayed and fought for XpZ. It is what it is....

In any case not sure where this thread all landed. I am back playing Ren again. I am interested in playing with old friends. Been good mixing it up with a few here, gohax & Hitman and others. Good to see Goosey,socom and others here at forums. I recognize a lot of names here.

I got some calls and pm's in hope to talk soon. Until then I'll be on Jelly most likely.

Regards,
