dnacrystal reported this on our forums:

Quote:cripts 4.0 beta5 triggers my antivirus and blocks installation.

Here's the report:

(Norton 2012)

Suspicious.Cloud.5

Discovered: September 1, 2010

Updated: September 2, 2010 12:22:32 AM

Type: Trojan, Virus

Systems Affected:

Windows XP, Windows Me, Windows Vista, Windows NT, Windows Server 2003, Windows 2000

Suspicious.Cloud.5 is a detection technology designed to detect entirely new malware threats without traditional signatures. This technology is aimed at detecting malicious software that has been intentionally mutated or morphed by attackers.
