That's why I said SBH reveal, just a general statement

Oh my god LOL! That IS what he was using! So he wasn't using an aimbot with 4.0, he was just using his radar.

For reference: <http://jelly-server.com/forums/index.php?/topic/19684-redude/>

Most people are suspicious because he whips around and immediately starts shooting at an SBH behind him in one of the videos.

I'm aware, but if you watch the video all of the time's he's chasing sbh he's shooting close to where they are but not always quite hitting them, that would be easily explained by the fact he was making a video for this radar hack just yesterday...

There is still an inhuman lock-on spin that defies 180 X usage in one of the vids
