The body is slightly different, the feet are totally different, i cant find any pictures that show up the hands.

Ok, can we TRY and make an effort to get this on topic now? This means no talk about the alien model since like 2 pages are on arguing about it.

Well, we have a mech model which is going to be used soon, umm.... we have a website and a forum:

website: http://susr.sdsites.net/modsite (not finished) the forum: http://www.multec.com/case9studios/forum/default.asp ok, this was wrote on the site which is for this site (the site which hosts it):

Stryker, Case 9 Studios is Space Age mod's work place (like WestWood Studios), the team is currently in the process of putting together a mod team to create "Space Age : Rise of the Aliens" mod for Renegade.

This is the mod site, currently down for updates and should be up sometime soon.
http://susr.sdsites.net/modsite

The main site is here: http://www.case9studios.tk/
But currently is under construction.

You can access the forums here:
http://www.multec.com/case9studios/forum/default.asp

Most if not all of the mod will be in space, with space stations and spaceships.

United Earth Federation VS Kryton Star Empire
Earth : Human Kryton : Alien

Case 9 Studios also need some people to join the mod team.

Currently the mod has some spots filled already.
If your a good at,

Gmax moddeler (make structures, guns, tanks, etc)
Mapper (make maps)
Skinner (skins stuff)
Scripter (write scripts for the mod)

The mod team is also looking for people with PHP knowledge (website stuff) for http://susr.sdsites.net/modsite .

But what the team doesnt have yet is a Sound/Music Artist, if your really good at that please email these two in charge.

Stackout : Stackout@planetcnc.com Infiints e-mail is

-Case 9 Studios- Seth : infinintmail@earthlink.net

The team is looking for grade A people who know their stuff, if your interested please email them.

So... yeah..
