So fucking sad really that people attack the server

Yes, It's very sad to see someone go out of there way to attack a server on a game that is 10 years old. What a fucking waste. MPF is a friendly community, the person that is attacking is either jealous or is attacking due to idiocy, and it's LOLZ to them. They don't want a 4.0 server that runs something other than the boring standard maps??
