Why are you fucking with people's lives? Weren't you banned for shit like this before?

You're pushing the wrong buttons all in hopes of getting attention dude.

yeah really extreme .. but how stupid can you get writeing such shit about the place where you work on a public site for anyone to see . and he clearly dislikes his dead end job--super lube-- so would be no real loss for him .

kinda sux hey ani-shai when you have no power over anything out side of your locked down forums or server. the only real place you have any importance or power.

and no I was not banned for shit like this I was 7 day banned for posting pic,s of mucky teeth.

no doubt you and all your little buddies over at rencorner have been clicking like crazy on the report buttons in the hope that a ban from the forums will finally get rid of me ? .

just like Tiny banning me from Ultra. servers that all have the same mod.s tmx-Ultra-rencorner... and yet still here I am and even would become more active if banned from this forum also..

this is totaly the same as every other timeargue with dj-muckyteeh-k .. mods take his side .leads to argue with mods . leads to ban server and forum...leads to lots of buddie bans in other servers . same old story and in the end I remain and all those servers are now dead or gone ?????? then the same old mods move on to a new server and the story happens again.
