Aspenthbrent3000TaximesI'm bored, so I'll fiddle around with making one... where is it

A good designer, such as I know Taximes to be, will spend more than 4 hours making something. I would naturally spend a couple days perfecting the colors, blending, and images used in the creation of any theme; I never rush to get it released the day I announce it.

Thanks, I appreciate the compliment

I have a "working" version now (ie - At least some form of all the images finished) but I'd like to touch it up.

Plus, the FTP that I upload my files to isn't working at the moment.
