Mauler has been working on the new RenHelp tutorials the last few weeks. The domain http://www.renhelp.net is now pointing to them.
You can find various video's and written tutorials for a wide range of categories there.
Most of the old (more important) tutorials have been ported over for all to access and learn from.

The above link will show you all the video's that have been recently added to help people with renegade mapping.

The makers of C&C Tiberium Crystal War are having a Developer's Night ont he 19th of January 2013.
It has been a while and they hope to see more than 20 players this time, like in the past events.
For time-zones and other general information please see -=[THIS]=- link.

Tiberium Crystal War is a Renegade conversion with C&C 3 Tiberium Wars units, structures, sounds and assets.
It is standalone (like A Path Beyond) and can be installed next to Renegade. See their website for download links.

A cool video trailer can be watched on the site -=[HERE]=-
