Aside from that, posting things like "Oh he look! We made this guy a mod" is kinda asking for it.
Personally, I think he posted that because he knows it's fucking stupid that they did that LOL

EDIT: I read DJ's mod approval thread, it was quite hilarious in multiple ways that I won't even go into

Can I ask why you guys obviously hate RenForums and the people on it, yet continually post your shit on it like people AREN'T just going to be total fucking douches? I mean dude, it's the same thing that happens every time LOL (not to mention EWD will probably move this to the community forum where it's supposed to go ANYWAY)

btw I saw that video earlier and if nothing else I was extremely impressed with the video-editing skills of whoever made it

If I could move it, I would've done it days ago. Although, by now, moving it to heated debates might be an option as well.
