We don't ban people who are really good at this game.

You have been watched oh so many times through spectator mode, screenshots have been taken to discover what you are using, and nothing showed up.

Thing is we don't have the anti-cheat features enabled on the NewMaps 4.0 server so cheating is possible up to a certain point apart from what is blocked by 4.0 on the client.

I'm not going into detail to what is possible and what is not.

Many of our moderators and admins have been thinking you are using some sort of cheat, hack or unfair advantage in game.

We have waited months before deciding to ban you for potentially cheating because we DID NOT WANT to ban you without proof of any sort.

You are just freaking amazing at this game OR you (ab)use something or are extremely lucky at times to get so many kills and no deaths it's not even funny anymore.

Again, i did not "WANT" to ban you for being "Good", it is because most of us believe you are hacking and getting away with it.

That game on DOM_Tutorial with the two cranes in domination style (the game after which i banned you) was imho nearly impossible;

You killed everyone like it was nothing second after second, where everyone else killed two or three guys and then died once you kept going on and on without dieing.

I'm not saying you should have died, but the gameplay was just so hectic on that map that it was nearly impossible to not die sometimes lol.

Yet you rarely died and kept owning everyone over and over until i had enough of it and you really convinced me you were using something.

I'm sorry if you do really not cheat and this ban is unjustified, you are the first we banned for cheating WITHOUT any actual proof.

Also note that we do not have to provide proof for any ban we issue; We can ban anyone we want for whatever reason we think deems that nessecary, we just choose to -in most cases- provide proof or reasoning.

The proof lacks here but the reasoning is simple: We believe you are using something; Therefor you are banned from the server. Nothing more nothing less.

The only way you can convince me you are legit is this: I would have to sit next to you on your pc playing renegade on our server and STILL killing people left and right like it's nothing, only then i will be absolutely sure you don't cheat and i will lift the ban.

But this will never happen. Sorry.
