That domain, we used years ago in MP. So, technically, MPF is is MP. xD

I strongly disagree.

Potato, potatoe. We use to use that remember? Lol. That's what I'm getting at. The same people, for the most part. The only real difference is these guys act like St0rm did. You can't take a shit over there without someone deleting a post. That mentality is exactly the same as St0rm was.

I digress...reborn I'm sorry to see you guys finally close down MP. We may have had our differences and fights, but in my opinion it's a very sad day for Renegade. Strikey told dronez he may keep MissionDM running on one of his empty boxes, if he doesn't(and would be willing), RC would keep it up with the name staying the same. We've got a few running uselessly, shutting down one would be no big deal. "Some" people still play it, not many, but that's not the point.
