That domain, we used years ago in MP. So, technically, MPF is is MP. xD

You should get your facts straitend out Shai.

I got demoted @ MP as a founder for being inactive, while i was online everyday. (lol)

Second the domain name ive aquired back in 2006, when MP was closing down.

After FM went down i came back to MP with that domain still in the background.

Zunnie and me wanted to do new things with the MPF domain, so we took a different choice that MP had in mind.

They didnt want to renew and expand to other games then APB , wich was the prior thing on MP-Gaming.

So thats why we left and started MPF.

Also i want to add that i do not want the Status of being a MP legacy affiliate, as we are a completely different community.

Did you guys, or did you not(at the end) get into a fight over a stupid domain name? Nice rage by the way, totally idiotic, considering you just said the same thing.

reborn, I didn't mean dronez was taking it over. I meant Strike told him he may place it on one of his(Strike's) other boxes. I just realized it sounded that way.

I wasnt flaming or trolling, i just set some things straight.

I didnt fight about it as it was given to me back in 2006 when MP closed down like i said.

The only thing wich was wierd was they didnt want me and zunnie to use that domain for our new website.

And since i own the domain, and i was kicked from MP Staff, i just left and took the domain with

me. simple right
