Just a status update: as unexpected as it may sound still no one on MPF has contacted me to resolve the matter; proving they have no qualm with banning people for being really good at a game.

And with the "herp derp you cheat but we have absolutely no proof" bullshit excuse I won't be amazed they start banning even mediocre players they don't like under that trumped up charge. Even when running anti-cheat.

Of course MPF can fully prove me otherwise, I'm still waiting.
