Chad1233 was telling me how ridiculous the MPF ban was and wanted to help me video myself playing someone decent like himself on a DM server. So we joined a shitty, laggy DM server that doesn't even run 4.0.

Though he didn't want to play like the average MPF player (walking in straight lines, no jumping or crouching while evading) so I only got a ~9.0 kd against him:

I'm looking forward to playing on a non-laggy 4.0 server and doing a sniping montage. I was playing on the Sla Company Mutant Coop server a few days ago and my aiming was top notch, though that was against bots. I'll probably upload that too but I'm interested in doing a sniping montage taken from jelly. It's a bit annoying sniping on Jelly because hits have the tendency not to register with sniper and pistol there.
