Then install the game again and catalyst will unban you. Try to be a good gamer. Talk less, play more (and stop watching weird videos...)

if cata wants to try to work it out im willing but i dont seem to communicate with people very well. i still have no idea how it got some bad it just got worse and worse and it keeps happening everywhere i go lol

Not sure how to put this without looking like just wanting to bash you, but... You should see a psychotherapist, and sshow him this topic and explain that you don't see why people are mean to you. He or she will then start to ask you all kinds of questions. These questions might hurt, but in the end they'll help you to understand why you come across as an annoying troll.
