If you remember a few years ago (I'm not sure if Jelly had the problem or not), but there were at least two incidences of a person using another persons IP. Back in MP it was done one time when our admin (Strike) was in IRC, and "Strike" with his IP joined the game. He flipped the heck out, and wasn't faking that lol.

The other, was when TheBeerinator claimed that one shifty fucker of using his IP too somehow. I dk, just throwing out conjecture.

Thinking back on that episode, liquid, and what transpired during/after...it could have been someone else doing it.

The IP was definitely the same IP as what MDK was currently using. I do remember that bit of it.

To this day, I still refute the claims that MDK cheated. He might be many things, but he certainly isn't a cheater. Plus if he was/is I doubt MPF would trust him so much, he certainly appears to be doing a good job over there or so I am told.
