ACK I would be the first to "lol" right with you as I can take peeps making jokes about me. But try to find something that is remotely accurate or even funny. Mod everywhere? LOL Make fun of the fact I die a lot, suck at sniping, or even Ren for that matter.

But Mod everywhere? Don't confuse me with DJ who foams at the mouth to be an admin and probably has a T-Shirt that says "Super-Admin, I'm Cool" and tries to use it as a pick-up line on girls. If I was the person you depict, why did I step down from pretty much every Admin position I held? Including most recently stepping down at RC as Head Admin? If it helps you sleep at night, as it seems you are extremely upset about this as you keep bringing it up, I can make a list of all the servers since 2002 I WASN'T on staff. I can even add it to my signature so you can see it on every post I make. I want to help you with your pain, after all remember I'm Dr. Phil Jr according to you!

Come on your the cool self proclaimed Alpha Male of the Renegade Forums. These forms are your life man! You have 17.5 peeps watching and waiting for your ever so comical posts. Surely you can do better. Your like a 4'2 tall kid trying to throw a punch at me and getting frustrated because I have my hand on your head and you can't reach me. Try harder little buddy and trying to use your feet to kick me won't work either.

Edited because I still can!
