You know Jim, his posts aren't worth comment. In fact Jim, I feel sorry for ack and have said so before.

Hey, remember that post? Specifically this part?

Look at the e-janitor responding to posts that aren't worth commenting on.

Here's what really happens when E-JanitorUSA responds to a thread:

Hmm, I wonder how I can post a reply to this... Better toss in some Dr. Phil psychobabble to sound smart!

Oh peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. They're arguing again! It's my job as E-Janitor to stop this calamity!

Writing a lengthy post full of psychobabble will definitely make me a lot of friends and ensure that this dead community never forgets the name E-JanitorUSA!

Whew, posting psychobabble on forums is hard work! I hope they've learned their lesson - they'll never disagree with me again. I better get back to my e-janitor job so people won't break rules in a video game server!
