Probably not, it was only substantial evidence, various pieces of fraps that gave the impression that he was using triggerbot.

Despite a 12/6 vote to keep him banned, the owner Reloaded overruled and has unbanned him with the following conditions attached:

"ReLoaDeD"NLsRene you will be able to play again under the following conditions

You:

- Will fraps and upload every game you play in our server.
- Will play on the nick NLsRene.
- Will follow the rules and won't insult any other players or moderators.
- Won't use any skins.

If you don't follow any of these conditions, the ban will be continued.

These conditions will rule untill the majority of our community believes your innocence.

Post your fraps movies in a reply and include the fulldate + timezone.

Post a reply with "I agree" and your ban will be removed.

So the is case closed for now..
