People have been telling me how you've recently started using triggerbot and actually play decently on TMX now, including one of your ex-1337 sniper buddies Midas. Good job dude!

Not to mention a while ago when in one of your st0rm clanwars videos you body shoot a guy behind a wall in the tunnels on C&C_Field while he's behind the wall the whole time! Liquid probably still has the video.

Pretty hilarious.

I dont have evidence, i never mentioned i have, its the same as you just mentioned, i played 1 time in tmx in like 1 year i guess, considering the fact i have been modding and playing with a sniper most of the time in the last years, im a pretty decent Sniper. Thats a fact, its up to you if you think different. I dont even know Midas, ill be honest here, i know that Nickname from playing on 1337 years ago, but i dunno who he is playing now nor do i have any contact with him afaik. The st0rm Story is what u mention, i easily cleared the situation by explaining how what u suspected me off wasnt working. I explain it once again to you, just in case you missed it, u said, i used BB, i told ya that if i would have used it, my reticle would have been red the moment the person got killed, i killed him, he lagged back behind wall, thats the whole story. If u can proof my fact wrong, i would like to see how, cuz thats the way how it happened, and nothing else, so the ball is in your fieldplace now
