liquidv2 wrote on Sat, 12 October 2013 11:41 you should ban a full server of players and keep the ones that don't post banned on the premise that they were cheating lol

it's really about principle here - do you honestly think rambo6 was cheating there, once you take into consideration that the shots he took were fully legit? unless there's some other evidence somewhere that proves him a cheater, you should really release that guy even if he never actually comes back, it's the right thing to do and what ehhs said is true - rambo6 can't actually type words other than "hahahaha" or "wasted"

I vultima back in since his ban was really a misunderstanding or language barrier thing - he made a sarcastic comment that was taken as literally as possible

Yeah I agree about the principle and no I don't think he was cheating as I know him. But It's always hard to defend or fight for a player when they aren't trying themselves. Liquid you know me well enough to know I do my best to clear innocent players. I don't always have the power or cooperation. I'm also the 1st to admit if I made a mistake. Hell I ban JPNod in like 2003 from my Renmasters server, later unban and apologized.
