For low power costs/time penalty we will have a way to change them per-map via the per-map tt.ini. No we wont have a way to change them for a server or anything, just through the tt.ini stuff. No the sidebar and PT stuff isn't going to change so stop asking about it

Fog is still being investigated.

You can't atleast add a 5th row? There is already space for it and it would be a giant improvement since the infantry row only has three slots right now since the refill one takes up a spot. Also 10 slots makes sense since there are 10 numbers on the number row as well.
