so nodsoldiergirl wins a new Renegade toy Flame tank for $55 on Aug 30th:

a few days later when the Flame tank gets there, nodsoldiergirl relists it on eBay for $75:

So you deny some real Renegade fan an opportunity to own Renegade collectibles just so you can make a cheap 20 buck profit? Driving the bid price up, winning the auction, then relisting the item. Cool!

edit: I didn't bid btw. Just watching the whole thing.
