The fucking idiots of today, blinded by utopian fantasies of peace and the fraud of "progress" and propelled by the most efficient propaganda machine assembled ever in the history of man, the electronic media, are coldly herded like sheep to their slaughter houses as those in power systematically employ every lie possible to get the people to disarm and also to get other people to speak out for the disarmament of others! Having lost sight of the reason for them being entrusted with weapons in the first place, the cocky arrogant yet immensely naïve clowns do the bidding of their invisible masters .

With their weapons confiscated and the COCKY BRAINDEAD SHEEP left holding only their porno mags, beer cans, pizzas, and ball game tickets the elite are free to rule over them forever!

Okay and what are you going to do about it?

Aside from writing entry-level, unintelligible nonsense on a dead gaming forum?
