erikboxem denied it to the grave, even after 0x90 came on and called him out on his story and lies (him being the one that actually made the cheat, having the best knowledge of how it works)

then the non-stop flow of Duke Gaming supporters coming on to defend their hero community owner despite all logic and reason was a repeating series of facepalms having to cheat to win against FnFalls/gz0ne is...deplorable at best
