Rencorner wont be forcing scripts(haven't had any !forcett's in over a year), we'll force a minimum version on people already using it(when most of them get theirs updated, then it's when it happens).

We get a few non-scripts users, and most of them get it after chatting with moderators on how to do it.

Also, dblaney, I heard some interesting shit about you the other night. Scripts 4.4 + MPF + your IP + cheating. What was that all about?
