I wouldn't recommend putting up a poll like this on this forum, knowing that the votes you'll get from the viewerbase is quite biased. I'd recommend you asking MPF and RC to set up their own poll to get more accurate results going, but even then it would not be ideal. I have a suspicion that most people playing Renegade with XP would do so in an internet cafe with antiquated PC's or young children from families that have been given their own throwaway laptop/desktop. I don't think you'll get any of those people voting on a poll here.
