CrimsonYou heard the community, guys... please try and make your posts worth our time to read. I joked with Blazer the other day that I should make the first 3 to reach 350 stay at "recruit" forever...

Hey I will keep my post down from now on would have been nice to reach commander first but it is not losing the communitys trust and support...

I won't be one of the first three to hit 350 posts now then I hope.
