AircraftkillerUnfortunately, he's right about the jackasses in Black Cell. Thinking I cheat, they banned me from their servers.

Yet they run my levels.

How much sense does that make?

you were banned for alot of reasons. No one really gives a shit if you cheat or not, we would have banned you anyways. Sorry, but we don't like having people join whenever the game hits their maps and then they sit there and go "I made this map, you should get on your knees and suck my cock because I never get any in real life" as for the whole thing with Kytten...us mods are all sick of babysitting people. every time we join a game it's a damn witch hunt for cheaters and on top of that we have to worry about other people breaking the rules. you're right, she shouldn't have tbanned you, she should have sat there, waiting for you to join, and as soon as you did, kick you, again and again. It's a great stress reliever, and if someone doesn't follow the rules, they deserve it
