f100d3dJust because you don't like my freedom of speech ... or the fact that I am confronting you ... doesn't give you the right to lock the thread and call it a day.

Even though it says "Renegade Public Forums", it's still their forums and they have the right to do anything they want in their forums. I'm not sure what you hope to gain with this method of questioning, I have to tell you, it doesn't appear to be helping your case or your image. Time and patience will unveil all.
