AhhhhGuys what you also have to focus on is hacking the sh*t out of these sites that publicize these cheats...That will probably teach them a lesson about publicizing cheats! Often in GSA there is some n00b asking for the link of sites where you can download cheats for Renegade...It pisses us off.

Also whoa Renguard sounds great! Finally its going to be like back in the day when the people playing Renegade didn't have to worry about cheaters.

Great Job Crimsson and her team!
