Cool, Crimson ... great work!

You can private message me or email me at the email used to subscribe if you want to talk in greater detail sometime. Or, if you'd prefer, tell me when your next meeting is (held in irc I'm assuming) and I'll be there if you want.

I basically have a webserver, 2 gameservers, and a fileserver available. I can set up a VPN (if needed) for your staff.

Hey, Iron-Fart did you read my post in the Tactics and Strategies section? I posted my "Tsunami Training" document that I've been using to train clans. Hopefully some noobs will find it usefull. How you been?
