Ok, so I'm attempting to make a map. the setting is a couple of tropical islands (It is a DM. Not a DM islands ripoff though... it would be much different if it turns out.). I might start over with new terrain and make them a bit bigger with a bridge connecting them.

So, how is it? good? bad? a good attempt? or, as ack may put it, does it "look like ass?" keep in mind I've only been working on this for about a day.

hmm, now that I look at it, it looks kinda like a smily face...
