Many cheaters are still out there.... And new cheaters are spawned daily, mostly new players who are pissed because some of us have been played the game since it's demo was released and they are tired of dying and do not want to put the time it takes to get good (not that i'm good but i can take the dying) so they cheat. Until Renguard comes out your best bet to avoid cheaters is to play on moderated servers, where cheaters are identified and BANNED. On our server ([StuTu]clanserver) we always BAN cheating bastards, and i hope all others mods do the same, do not kick them, and do not warn them.....Make sure they are cheating then BAN their asses. We should start a master list where all of us who are moderators could post names of known cheaters....hm..what an idea
