Wow, what do ya know, I already answered that in the first paragraph at the top of this thread...

Quote:The Soviets get a new weapon, the Shock Rifle. This weapon is around 550-600 polygons. When ingame you will see the electricity spark between the two rods and the electricity bolt will act just like the Tesla Coil's electricity bolt.

(You seriously need to take a look at this link. Take some time to go through that site, because it would really help you alot.)
