...and decided to try it again after a couple of months without playing it. I left due to the uncontrollable series of cheating in most of the good servers I used to play on and kept waiting for Renguard and other features to stop them. Well, I played a game on n00btories server (congrats Crimmy!!!) and some other matches on the good old FoD (my all time favorite one) and, despite the fact there was a n00b stealing tanks on n00bstories one, I had a very funny Saturday session and I can tell you: I'M BACK!!!
