TaximesFirst of all, he's probably just some average schmoe who believes nothing of what he said, and just put it on the internet to ruffle some feathers. I say this because I find it extremely unlikely that anyone could support any or all of these views and actually think that he has a chance of implementing them.

^ I'd have to agree with that. I bet he's just trying to make us right-winging Christians look bad! Even though I'm more of a Libertarian, but don't get the wrong idea, the Libertarian party SUCKS (Go GOP!)

Anyway, lying or not, he's still making us look bad.

IRON-FARTNazi, not communist. Communists have everyone work for the benefit of the state, Nazi is facism, which exclude certain groups/classes of people to protect the government.

Nazi's in Germany used to burn books. This guy wants the Theory of Evolution eradicated from public schools.

Nazism is kind of a mix of socialism and facism, the two extremes of right and left into one. Nazi means you're a member of the National Socialist German Workers Party.

Facism is simply saying "whatever works" and "majority rules." Whatever seems nessasary, right and wrong are opinions, etc.

Even though I don't believe in evolution, does not mean I want books about it burned. (More evidence that this guy is trying to make us look bad) True or false, evolution is good to learn whether you think it's true or not. Evolution is a theory, and educated guess, and creation is a belief. And to be honest they're both pretty rational to me.
