To reduce the amount of work, the marine model should have multiple skins.

These skins should be either extra looks or for other units, such as the Firebat and extra unit ideas.

Just because the Firebat, Marine, Medic, and Ghost are the only ground units doesn't mean we can't make up more!

So as you can see we will also need our imagination to run wild about SC in order to increase the choices for the player...

Just one question Fox. Do we discuss this project's concept here or do we discuss it someplace private???

If we should, then just PM me if I need to contact/PM/AIM you or visit a forum of your own?? I can host a forum for you with an additional chatroom if needed.

If it's okay to be discussed here then just tell me here...
