Ok let me deal with this.

RadiantX IRC Network is a service we provide, the network, the administrators, the ircops are not responsible for anything that passes through the network. IE - Warez

Crimson/n00bstories.com is not dealing in warez, n00bstories.radiantx.net is simply a link, we felt was a good investment in creating. Crimson is not responsible for anything that passes through the network, except her channels, in which what she does and allows is her business.

We have contacts in the UK Internet Crime Division at Scotland Yard, who have told us we are not breaking any laws, and are not responsible for what goes on.

If you wish to take this further, email me | england@radiantx.net

Warez is a fact of life, and will never go away, if you dont like it.. dont use the network.
