I think I remember reading that the remaining human population and the GDI forces moved out to sea to escape the tiberian. But the tiberian adapted to live on and in the water, so the GDI is kinda on the run. Nod has somewhat diminished into a smaller threat, but Cabal has become a very large threat. His army has moved underground to escape the tiberian lifeforms, and the watchful eye of GDI. He still continues Kane's work with tiberian lifeforms. There was something else about the Scrin.....but I cannot remember, but I believe they have a larger role in the storyline now.

Well thats what I think it is about. Either I made this all up in the my head, sounds like a good storyline, or it is some true information.
