So having an opinion that happens to agree with someone else is the same as sucking up to them?

Then ANewOrder, I suggest you stop sucking up to the Reborn team and everyone else that supports, errr.. sucks up to them.

Edit: and while we're at it, I ask everyone else here to stop sucking up to their governments, friends, employees, subordinates, etc. because as it has been put, you are forbidden to have the same opinions as them.
